PABST DEPOT

Pabst Brewing built the depot, where Crossroads Hotel now lives, in 1911 for bottling works. To distribute its beer, Pabst would often send multiple Percheron horse-drawn teams to “flash mob” the streets, parading the wagons loaded with beer as a marketing stunt. Political boss Tom Pendergast bought both buildings in 1920 after Prohibition and began to use the warehouse for his own distribution purposes.

EVENTS

Percheron Run Club

Congratulations, you've stumbled upon the largest running club in Kansas City!

Every Tuesday, Crossroads Hotel x Jamie Wiley brings together runners of all levels and speeds.

Take a scenic tour through different routes in our city, covering roughly 3 miles each time. And when you're done, enjoy a beer on the house - because you've earned it!

Join us for a run that's not just about the miles, but about the friendships and fun along the way. Whether you're a seasoned marathoner or a beginner, you'll find your place in our community. Meet in the lobby of Crossroads Hotel each week by 6:30pm to catch the run.

Saturday Morning Yoga with Emily Cox

Kickstart each weekend with a 60-minute guided yoga session led by the amazing Emily Cox - every Saturday at 10am here at Crossroads Hotel.

Whether we're saluting the sun on the rooftop during the summer or finding some inner peace in our cozy private dining room during the winter, we always put wellness first.

Even better? Every ticket you grab goes straight to Emily Cox, fueling our awesome yoga program. Snag your spot online via Tock and get ready to flow with us!

Crossroads Hotel Art Gallery

With 2,000 square feet dedicated to public art, local artists and artists with historic ties to Kansas City, Crossroads is not just community-driven but art-driven. The gallery program is a thoughtful effort to reflect and contribute to the surrounding art district. Exhibitions, artist commissions, performances and unexpected artist-driven experiences will intimately connect visitors to the creative scene thriving in the area.
