

CROSSROADS HOTEL

Luzia

PERCHERON

NR

In the heart of Kansas City, Crossroads Hotel is where we come together to share ideas and craft something new. Those who crave something different, who want to leave an impression, who see art in the every day, and the story in every detail converge to collaborate.

Crossroads Hotel, just like Kansas City, is at its core about community and connection. At every turn, we integrated local artists, designers, and purveyors to share their talent and creativity. Where people from all over the world and around the corner come together at an intersection of historic and modern. The energy, creativity, and passion that define the city and neighborhood make this place easy to call home. Unique and multifunctional spaces set the tone for any event.

Come experience one of the most distinctive event destinations in the Midwest, featuring the friendliest staff with all of the spirit and energy Kansas City has to offer.
